

School is out, help stock trout!

The public is invited to help MassWildlife stock trout during school vacation week. Join stocking events in Pittsfield, Plymouth, Westfield, Woburn, and Worcester.

4/01/2022

- Division of Fisheries and Wildlife

The public is invited to help MassWildlife stock trout during school vacation week! Meet MassWildlife fisheries staff, view trout up close, and learn about places to fish near you.

- April 19: Long Pond and Little Pond, Plymouth
There will be two stocking events in Plymouth on this date. Meet at 10 a.m. at the Long Pond Boat Ramp off Clark Road. Meet at 11 a.m. at the Little Pond Boat Launch on Morton Park Road.
- April 20: Lake Quinsigamond, Worcester
Meet at 11 a.m. at Regatta Point in Quinsigamond State Park at 10 Lake Avenue North in Worcester.
- April 21: Onota Lake, Pittsfield
Meet at 1:30 p.m. at Burbank Park on Lakeway Drive in Pittsfield.
- April 21: Hampton Ponds, Westfield MA
Meet at 11 a.m. the Hampton Ponds Boat Ramp located off Old Apremont Way in Westfield.
- April 22: Horn Pond, Woburn
Meet at 1 p.m. at the Horn Pond Boat Ramp off Lake Avenue.

Can't make one of these stocking events? You can still join in on the fun by planning a fishing trip with family or friends to take advantage of spring trout stocking. MassWildlife will stock nearly 500,000 hatchery-raised brook, brown, rainbow, and tiger trout statewide this year. Information about where trout have been stocked is updated daily at Mass.gov/Trout